IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY

The Late Nelson Dingley's Funeral At Washington This Morning.

WITH GENUINE REGRET

The Last Sad Honors Are Paid To the Dead Statesman By His Friends And Colleagues.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The president of the United States and the members of the senate and the house of representatives paid the last sad honors to the memory of the late Congressman Nelson Dingley today.

At noon in the great house of representatives chamber, the representatives of the mourning nation bowed their heads during the prayers or listened with tear filled eyes to the eloquent eulogies spoken upon his sterling character and noble deeds. Perhaps never in the history of the old capitol has there been more sincere grief demonstrated at the funeral of a public man. Men who had fought Dingley to a bitter finish on tariff and finance vied with each other in evidences of genuine sorrow.

Long before the hour set for the ceremonies in the house, the galleries were filled with those who held tickets from members and senators. Scores of floral pieces covered the crepe-draped desk lately occupied by Mr. Dingley on the floor, and many more were heaped in fragrant profusion about the stand placed to receive the remains, before the speaker's chair.

At 9 o'clock the joint committee of the house and senate repaired to the Hamilton hotel to escort the hearse to the capitol. No services were held at the hotel and but a few minutes were consumed there.

The remains reached the house about 10 o'clock, and from that hour till the services began hundreds of people passed slowly around the simple black casket to take a last look at the face they knew so well.

The various committee rooms of the house were reserved for those especially invited to the funeral. The president and cabinet gathered in the naval affairs chamber and the ways and means committee room was occupied by the diplomatic corps, the commissioners of the District, the major general commanding the army, and the senior admiral of the navy.

At noon Speaker Reed called the house to order. Rev. Dr. Couden offered prayer, making no reference to the distinguished dead. The clerk then read the journal as on ordinary days.

Resolutions of regret and condolence from the senate arrived immediately after the approval of the journal and within a minute's time from the reception of this motion, Vice-President Hobart and the members of the senate filed into the chamber.

The ambassadors and other diplomatic representatives came in together with the chief justice and associate justices of the supreme court in their black robes of office. The latter took seats in front of the speaker to the right. The president and his cabinet with the family of the deceased and honorary pallbearers from the senate and the house were seated just before the speaker, to the right and left, and the services began.

The choir from the First Congregational church, Rev. S. M. Newman, and Rev. Dr. Couden, the house chaplain, participated. Dr. Newman's sermon was an eloquent eulogy upon the dead legislator's worth as a citizen, law-maker, husband, father, and follower of Christ. Rev. Mr. Couden offered prayer after the sermon, and the president and cabinet, justices, senators, diplomatic corps, pallbearers and mourners filed out.

Immediately after the retirement of the guests of the house, Mr. Boutelle, of Maine, moved "as a further mark of respect to the memory of the deceased, that the house do now adjourn." Action was taken at once.

BRYAN AT DENVER

He Is Being Fed By Representative Citizens. DENVER, Jan. 16.—Not many people were at the depot at seven o'clock this morning when Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bryan arrived here, but later in the day a regular ovation was tendered the couple. They were breakfasted, lunched, and dined by representative citizens.

The day was given over to their honor: a public reception at eleven o'clock, was an enthusiastic affair in which the silver leader was cheered to the echo. Tonight another reception takes place.

Tomorrow Bryan is to be entertained by the governor and legislature. Tomorrow night Bryan makes a formal address, his subject being "Naboth's Vineyard."

COAL MINERS

Will Try to Adjust Their Differences.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 16.—A joint interstate conference of accredited representatives of the competitive coal fields and delegates representing the United Mine workers of America, will open here tomorrow for the purpose of discussing the scale of wages for the year beginning April 1, when the agreement adopted at the Chicago conference last January expires. There are upwards of fifty operators here for the conference, while the miners of Indiana, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Illi-

AN EXTRA SESSION

Of Congress Will Perhaps Be Necessary To Pass the Army Bill.

SENATE WILL OPPOSE

And It Is Possible That No Vote Will Be Reached In That Body Before Adjournment.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Leading members of congress are generally of the opinion that an extra session is necessary. It will be brought about by the failure to pass the bill providing for a standing army of 100,000. There appears to be no doubt that

EAGAN MUST ANSWER

He Will Be Tried By Court Martial For His Disgraceful Conduct.

MADE FORMAL APOLOGY

But That Will Not Save Him From the Consequences Of His Ill Advised Outburst.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—A revised statement from Gen. Eagan with all objectionable matter eliminated was submitted to the war investigating commission this morning, accompanied by a letter of transmittal, in which the general makes a formal apology to the commission. Both the revised statements and the apology were accepted by the commission in executive session.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The war department has decided to court martial Gen. Eagan. Gen. Merritt will be the president of the court, which will sit at Washington. On account of the impossibility of getting enough general officers to make up the entire detail, there will be some officers of junior rank on the court.

STRICT CENSORSHIP

Over All Dispatches At Manila.

HONG KONG, Jan. 16.—The censorship at Manila is of the strictest kind, and this lends some color to the stories of refugees that there is dissatisfaction among American volunteers in the islands. It is explained that the Americans control only the territory actually occupied by their soldiers. The rest of Luzon is under the sway of Aguinaldo, who is obtaining recruits for his army there without trouble.

MANILA, Jan. 16.—The situation at Iloilo is unchanged. The natives have blocked the river and are making intrenchments, but no open hostilities have yet occurred. The captain of a British cruiser which has arrived here from Iloilo brings this news.

Col Potter has again gone to Iloilo with dispatches for General Miller.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The war department has had no cablegrams from Gen. Otis since Friday night, when he transmitted reassuring advice, except the usual weekly death report which came this morning. The fact that Gen. Otis does not consider it necessary to consult the officials is taken as a positive indication that he has everything well in hand and feels no need for anxiety.

Officials here feel very sure that if disturbances had occurred, Otis would have been prompt to report them.

LOAN ARRANGED

Forty Million Dollars To Be Advanced To Cuba.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—General Jose Miguel Gomez, a member of the Cuban commission now in this country, says that the terms for the Cuban loan by the United States government to pay the Cuban army have practically been agreed upon.

Forty million dollars are to be advanced by the United States with the customs house receipts of Cuba as security.

Gomez has just returned from Cuba, where he went to get an official list of the men of the Cuban army. There are 47,000 men to be paid.

TO TEST LEGALITY

Of The Kansas Populists' Extra Session.

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 16.—Proceedings to determine the legality of the extra session of the legislature will be commenced in the Kansas supreme court this week. It will be the first step in the republican program to nullify the court of visitation law, insurance tax, and other anti-corporation enactments, passed by the special session of populists during December.

ANARCHISTS

Reported To Have Plotted To Blow Up Hotels in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 16.—A morning paper publishes the details of an alleged anarchist plot to blow up a number of big hotels in this city. A letter giving the plans has been found in the Alameda. The police are investigating.

WILL NOT EXCHANGE

The British West Indies For the Philippines.

LONDON, Jan. 16.—It is learned from a reliable source that England is not contemplating any proposal to the United States for the exchange of the British West Indies for the Philippines as was lately reported.

But the British cabinet wants to see the Philippine islands in American hands, as it regards their retention by the United States as of the greatest importance in assisting Great Britain to resist Russia and France in the far east.

DESTROYED BY FIRE

Several Students Had Narrow Escapes.

HALIFAX, N. S. Jan. 16.—St. John's college and the college chapel at Church Point were totally destroyed by fire this morning. Several students had narrow escapes. The loss is $65,000.

ADMIRAL DEWEY

Will Head the Philippines Commission, As He Should.

EXCELLENT JUDGMENT

Shown By the President In Making His Selections For This Important Work.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The president is proceeding with his plan to take time to study the conditions in the Philippines before he recommends any set course of action there with the view of reorganizing the government and bringing the islands under American civil government. If anything was needed to demonstrate the sincerity of the president in his expressed desire to do for the islands what seems to be the very best for them, with due regard to our own rights and interests, that is found in the character of his appointments to the places on the commission which will make a thorough study of conditions in the island at first hand, and give the president and the nation the benefit of their investigations.

Admiral Dewey has accepted a position on the commission, and he will doubtless be the presiding officer.

There will be three civilian members, besides the other army and navy representatives. The best known of the civilians is Charles Denby, ex-minister to China, than whom no American is more familiar with conditions in the orient and the political situation there. He is at present acting on the war investigation commission.

The other two civilians are Jacob Gould Schurman, president of Cornell university, and Prof. Worcester. President Schurman is widely known as a man of rich experience and keen insight.

The civilian members of the Philippines commission will start for the Orient sooner than was expected. President Schurman of Cornell had a long conference with the president this morning. At its conclusion he stated that he and Col. Denby will leave Washington for Vancouver in the next three days, there to take the steamer for Hong Kong.

They will be joined on reaching Manila by Prof. Worcester.

TROUBLE FEARED

But Scarborough's Nerve Never Deserted Him.

BOWIE, Ariz., Jan. 12; to the HERALD: John Williams, who was wounded on Black River Nov. 24th by Geo. Scarborough while resisting arrest, was arrested in Geronimo on the 12th inst. by Deputy Sheriff John Selman and escaped that night.

Scarborough in company with Sheriff Ben Clark visited Geronimo next day to get the prisoner and found that he had escaped the night before; they also learned that several parties in town were waiting for Scarborough armed with six-shooters and Winchester.

Scarborough immediately took in the situation and remarked, "Boys, I will be killed in fifteen minutes; ship me to Deming."

However, he prepared to die game and taking his repeating shot gun in his hand went across the street to the hotel. There were plenty of guns in sight but no one seemed to care to open up the little game.

The sheriff and Scarborough were in town about an hour and during that time the strain was intense. Citizens expected every minute that trouble would begin. The sheriff concluded that nothing could be done so that he and Scarborough returned to Solomonville on the evening train.

Silver.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Silver, 59 5-8.

Chinaman Deported.

Wong Ah Yan alias Jim Lee, a Chinaman arrested on this side the border some time ago, having in his possession a crooked certificate, was given a hearing before United States Commissioner Sexton this morning and ordered deported.

ADDISON C. HARRIS,
Ambassador To Austria.

The Senate Has Confirmed His Nomination for the Austro-Hungarian Embassy.

nols will be represented by several hundred delegates.

At the time of its adoption the Chicago agreement was considered satisfactory by both operators and miners. It failed, however, to insure the complete harmony between masters and men that had been expected of it, and during the past year frequent allegations have been made by the miners that some of the operators failed utterly to comply with its provisions, especially with that clause of the agreement regulating screenings.

SENATOR STEWART

Will Have A Hard Fight To Succeed Himself.

CARSON CITY, Nev., Jan. 16.—The state legislature which is to elect a United States senator to succeed William M. Stewart, the "Santa Claus of the senate," convened at noon today.

Carson is thronged with politicians, newspaper men and others interested in the senatorial fight and the streets and public places present much the same appearance as on March 17, 1897, the day the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight was brought off here.

It is Stewart against the field and to everyone it is apparent that the venerable silver leader who has had his own way in Nevada for so many years is now forced to make the fight of his life.

Congressman Newlands has behind him the support of the younger men who speak of Senator Stewart as a "political fossil," and claim he is not in touch with the present views of his party. On the other hand, Stewart has a large following of old-timers. He has been an active political factor in Nevada since 1864.

King Oscar III.

STOCKHOLM, Jan. 16.—King Oscar is suffering from an attack of influenza.

POULTRY SHOW

In Denver the Best Ever Held in the West.

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 16.—The pet stock show which opened here today under the auspices of the Colorado State Poultry association is the most notable, both in the number and high quality of the exhibits, ever held west of Chicago. Many of the prize-winning chickens, ducks and pigeons of the country are gathered together, making a total of over 1,500 birds, including every kind of fancy breed. A notable feature of the exhibition is a display of 700 Belgian hares.

TAKEN TO SING SING

"Badger" Moore Has Lost His Defiant Air.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—W. A. E. Moore, who was recently sentenced to 19 years in the penitentiary for working the Badger game on Martin Mahon, was taken to Sing Sing today. The air of braggadocio which he assumed at the trial has entirely disappeared. Moore looks far from well; he has lost 40 pounds since his incarceration in the Tombs.

HIGH WATER

But No Great Damage Reported.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 16.—The river this morning shows a stage of 41.8 and is stationary at Cincinnati. No danger at this point is feared. High water is reported throughout Kentucky and the south, but no great danger has been reported.
